

What about people who have never heard the Gospel? See God through his Creation

What about air inside a ball, a tire anything?

For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him will not perish but have eternal life. God did not send his Son into the world to condemn it, but to save it. (John 3:16-17) - These are Jesus' words to Nicodemus a Pharisee, a member of the Jewish ruling counsel.

God is not intolerant

God loved the world

For the truth about God is known to them instinctively. God has put this knowledge in their hearts. From the time the world was created, people have seen the earth and sky and all that God made. They can clearly see his invisible qualities--his eternal power and divine nature. So they have no excuse whatsoever for not knowing God. (Romans 1:19-20 NLT)

But God's angry displeasure erupts as acts of human mistrust and wrongdoing and lying accumulate, as people try to put a shroud over truth. But the basic reality of God is plain enough. Open your eyes and there it is! By taking a long and thoughtful look at what God has created, people have always been able to see what their eyes as such can't see: eternal power, for instance, and the mystery of his divine being. So nobody has a good excuse. What happened was this: People knew God perfectly well, but when they didn't treat him like God, refusing to worship him, they trivialized themselves into silliness and confusion so that there was neither sense nor direction left in their lives. They pretended to know it all, but were illiterate regarding life. They traded the glory of God who holds the whole world in his hands for cheap figurines you can buy at any roadside stand. Romans 1:18-23 (MSG)

God shows himself through creation

And when he (the Holy Spirit) comes, he will convince the world of its sin, and of God's righteousness, and of the coming judgment. (John 16:8)

So- if people recognize that there is a Creator through nature and through the Holy Spirit, He will reveal the gospel message to them, and at which point they can choose to accept or reject Him.

For you were killed, and your blood has ransomed people for God from every tribe and language and people and nation. (Revelation 5:9)

From the time the world was created, people have seen the earth and sky and all that God made. They can clearly see his invisible qualities--his eternal power and divine nature. So they have no excuse whatsoever for not knowing God (Romans 1:20)

The message of God's creation has gone out to everyone, and its words to all the world. (Romans 10:18)

26From one man he made every nation of men, that they should inhabit the whole earth; and he determined the times set for them and the exact places where they should live. 27God did this so that men would seek him and perhaps reach out for him and find him, though he is not far from each one of us. (Acts 17:26 -27)
